Those applicants that are selected to be Reading Buddies and are over the age of 18 years old, will be responsible for presenting the King Township Public Library with a Vulnerable Sector Screening report. This report is produced by the York Region Police. This will ensure the safety of the children.

Reading Buddies must be at least 14 years old.

Contact information of those selected to be Reading Buddies will be given to the child's family so that they may contact you in case of cancellation.

All personal information collected on this application will be confidential. Following the last weekly session of Reading Buddies, the application will be destroyed.

Thank you for applying to be a Reading Buddy.
